

FUEL R&D CONTENTS

Vol. XXI, No. 3-4, March-April, 2001

Alf Etemad (Topfuel 2001 chairman)

Editorial

Development of fuels to meet the challenge of a changing market 6

Letters to the Editor

Overcoming nuclear "arrogance": top managers should talk to public; show empathy and honesty. 9

ENS News

PIME 2001: Is effective communication the only way to nuclear renaissance? ENS conferences. 10

Member Societies News

France: ICONE-9 and Global 2001. Belgium: ICEM 2001 and report on Plutonium 2000. Poland: world journal. 13

Udo Helwig and Jeff Adams toasting Rossendorf deal

Corporate Members News

BNFL to help clean Germany's Rossendorf site. Reload fuel orders in US and Finland. Urenco's 50-millionth SWU. New chiefs at Hansa and NAC Europe. IST's new pocket dosimeter. 15

World News

Western Europe Minister says closure of Barsebäck-1 violates EU rules. New European NPPs in next 20 years? Joint Franco-German project all ready to go. 16

Eastern Europe Construction starts on new Russian fast reactor ... as Romania pledges Cernavoda-2 completion. 17

Asia China charts moderate course for new NPPs ... as Japanese utilities plan new units. Japan-Kazakhstan in fast reactor research. Pakistani officials praise Chashma. 18

USA Nuclear's increasing $ value. Law to encourage nuclear's continuation ... and more cash to boost education. 19

Fuel Fewer, bigger, tougher buyers. Largest high-grade uranium mine McArthur boosts its reserves. 20

Book Review

The story of Oxford Instruments 22

Oxford science venturers Audrey and Martin Wood

Features

Advances in BWR fuel development 24

Operational experience on advanced VVER fuel assemblies at Loviisa NPP 26

French research and development in nuclear fuel reprocessing 28

How to manage a nuclear fuel business successfully 30

Fuel and core design experiences at Cofrentes NPP 32

Innovation vs standardization in nuclear fuel: risks and opportunities 33

Proposing guidelines for reliable nuclear fuel 35

History in Stamps

From Democritus to Marie Curie and Hantaro Nagaoka. 37

Jobs 11

Readers Service 38

The next issue

RADWASTE AND DECOMMISSIONING

The cover shows the impressive waterfront towers of Stockholm: the venue for this year's ENS Topfuel conference, which focuses on the commercial and technical aspects of LWR fuel cycle. For more details, see editorial on p. 6. Registration information can be obtained at the Topfuel website at: <http://www.stocon.se/topfuel/>