

EUROPEAN NUCLEAR SOCIETY

Copyright statement

The European Nuclear Society (ENS) does not request copyright of papers submitted for its conferences and published in the conference proceedings. The copyright resides with the author(s) and the papers may be submitted to other conferences or journals.

The European Nuclear Society is a disseminator of information. Its conference proceedings are published without access restrictions on its website.

Authors grant unrestricted permission for ENS to publish the accepted full paper in its conference proceedings without additional consideration or remuneration.

Although the ENS conference proceedings are not considered as journals, accepted and published full papers are expected to be of high professional quality.

The Proceedings of TopFuel 2021 will be published with ISBN number 978-92-95064-35-5.
